PRIVACY POLICY

Save-A-Pet (SAP) is committed to protecting the privacy of our donors and supporters and deeply appreciates their support.

SAP may send correspondence (via mail and/or electronically). You may always opt out if either now or in the future you no longer wish to receive our messages.

SAP does not trade, share or sell its donor's personal information with anyone else, nor does it send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations.

To opt out of electronic newsletters, please follow the unsubscribe instructions and/or link at the bottom of the newsletters.

For other correspondence you receive from us, please email exec.director@saveapetil.org your information and the word Unsubscribe in the subject of your email. You can also request to unsubscribe through regular mail. Please also use this email address to update your information.

Your information is used to provide you with regular updates, whether via mail or electronically, about Save-A-Pet as a whole (not limited to request for donations and for help, adoption stories, process of membership application and donation acknowledgement, etc.).

Website: When a person visits our website, basic information is collected, such as number of visitors, pages visited, number of hits, etc. We also use a number of web analytics such as Google Analytics to help us better understand the visits to our site. We encourage you to accept cookies when visiting our site. Visitors to our website remain anonymous.

If you are making an online donation, additional information may be requested by 3rd party providers in order to process your donation.

This policy may be amended from time to time and a revised Privacy Policy will be posted at www.saveapetil.org Your continued use of our website after the date such notice is posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms. Comments or questions about this policy are welcome.
